

Romans 2:6-11 God's judgment exposes the true condition of every heart.

March 22

1. When you look at the direction of your life right now, what does it reveal about what you are really seeking most? (Romans 2:7; Matthew 6:33)

2. In what ways have you seen God changing you or shaping your life recently? (Romans 2:6-7; Matthew 7:16-20; Ephesians 2:8-9)

3. What helps you keep following and obeying God when it becomes difficult or discouraging? (Romans 2:7; Galatians 6:9; Hebrews 12:1-2)

4. Where do you find it hardest to put God's truth ahead of your own desires? (Romans 2:8; Philippians 2:3-4; James 3:16)

5. Since God shows no favoritism, how should that change the way we treat or think about other people? (Romans 2:11; Acts 10:34–35; 2 Corinthians 5:10)

6. Why do you think it's easy for people to rely on religious activities instead of genuine faith and obedience? (Romans 2:6–8; Romans 2:17–24; James 1:22)

7. What are some practical ways we can keep our hearts focused on eternal things rather than temporary rewards? (Romans 2:7; Colossians 3:1–2; Matthew 6:19–21)

8. If God judges everyone fairly, what gives us confidence and hope before Him? (Romans 2:6–9; Romans 3:23–24; Romans 8:1)
